Justice Works: Social Ministry

Prayer/Reflection

Martin Luther King Jr. Day January 15, 2024

“And the fact is that justice is indivisible;
Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.”

“...if we will stand and work together, we will bring into being that day when justice will roll down like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream.

We will bring into being that day when America will no longer be two nations, but when it will be one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”
(MLK, Jr)

17th Parish Delegation to El Salvador, January 11 – 20, 2024

Six parishioners are now visiting our Sister Community in the Bajo Lempa region of El Salvador. During their stay, each day is filled with a variety of visits including: the Normandia Farm Cooperative, homes in Angela Montano, the Sisters in Nueva Esperanza, Liturgy of the Word in La Noria, La Quesera Martyr site, and Providence Scholarship students in La Papalota.

In and around San Salvador, the group visits include: the site where the Four North American Women were killed, St. Oscar Romero memorials, the Wall which lists the names of those killed and disappeared during the 12-year-war, the University of San Salvador where the 6 Jesuits and the two women were killed in 1989.

Their time away is both informative and a pilgrimage. It is a walk in solidarity with Salvadorans who have been oppressed, but who continue to move forward in faith and resilience.

Please hold the delegation in prayer.

The Land Is Not Our Own:

Seeking Repair Alongside Indigenous Communities

Eight Tuesday mornings:
Feb. 6 – Mar. 26 10am to 12 Noon.
Antonian Room.
Facilitated by: Colleen Butler
and Rita Amberg Waldref

The group will explore the Doctrine of Discovery and its devastating consequences, including the degradation of God’s creation, U.S. and Church policies that removed children from their homes, and a disproportionately high number of murdered and missing Indigenous women and girls.

Fee for the program: The cost of two books, $30.00.
Scholarships are available, if needed.

Info or to register: Rita at rwaldref@dioceseofspokane.org

“The Letter: A Message for our Earth”
Tuesday, January 23rd
Antonian Room. 9:30 – 11:30 AM
Facilitated by Sr. Pat Millen, OSF

The film brings to life the transformative vision of “Laudato Si,” Pope Francis’ encyclical on the environment. It inspires lasting action for our common home. The Pope dialogues with activists from the Brazilian Amazon, India, Senegal, and the U.S.
