Justice Works: Social Ministry

Prayer/Reflection

Remembering the University of El Salvador (UCA) Martyrs: Nov. 16th

We remember the six Jesuits who were martyred in El Salvador on November 16, 1989. These men stood with the poor and the oppressed of El Salvador, preaching the Gospel of Jesus. With their lay companions they made the ultimate sacrifice for God, the church and for their brothers and sisters.

Holy martyrs of El Salvador, pray for us.

The Clarion Brass event will be professionally recorded and broadcasted on KSPS PBS this December, allowing a broader audience to experience the magic of the music.

By attending our event, you're not just a spectator – you're part of the magic! Your cheers, applause, and enthusiasm may be captured and featured on the on-air broadcast, making this an even more special occasion.

To ensure that every moment is captured in the best possible way, we kindly request that you refrain from using cell phones, cameras, or recording devices.

Let's create an immersive experience and celebrate the music together. Rest assured, our expert videography and sound teams will ensure that every note and every emotion are faithfully preserved for your enjoyment on KSPS PBS.

TAIZÉ WORSHIP SERVICE

with Brother Emile of the Taizé Community in France

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13TH | 7PM
UNIVERSITY CHAPEL (3RD FLOOR COLLEGE HALL)

The Taizé Community was founded by Brother Roger during WW II as an ecumenical monastic community where both Catholics and Protestants could live and worship together. As young people came to visit from around the world, the Brothers developed a unique style of simple music and worship that allowed people from many languages and cultures to join in worship together three times each day. Today, the Taizé community includes over 100 brothers, and welcomes tens of thousands of young people each year to their monastery in rural France.
