

AFTER SCHOOL MUSIC ACTIVITIES

GRADES 3-8

2024

Experts or non-experts in musical instruments, come pick up a skill!

Research has shown that playing the piano is great for brain development! It's an awesome instrument that requires skill and practice. Using both hands together helps strengthen the weaker side of the brain and makes it more efficient. Our goal is to help students express themselves through music and gain the confidence to perform.

This year, we're offering small group piano lessons (up to 6 students) as part of the fine arts and music program. Check out the dates, times, and costs below.
